INFORMATION REGULATOR

No. R.

2017

PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT, 2013 (ACT NO. 4 OF 2013):
REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION, 2017

The Information Regulator has under section 112(2) of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (Act No. 4 of 2013), made the regulations in the Schedule.

SCHEDULE

Definitions

1. In these regulations any word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the Act has the meaning so assigned to it and, unless the context otherwise indicates—

"submit" means submit by—

- (a) registered post;
- (b) electronic mail;
- (c) facsimile; or
- (d) personal delivery; and

"the Act" means the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (Act No. 4 of 2013).

Manner of objection to the processing of personal information

2. (1) A data subject may object in writing on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 1 to the Annexure to the processing of personal information as contemplated in section 11(3)(a) of the Act, and submit such objection to the responsible party.

(2) The responsible party, or a person designated for that purpose by the responsible party, must assist, to the best of its or his or her ability any data subject who requires assistance with the completion of Form 1 to the Annexure.

Request for correction or deletion of personal information or destroying or deletion of record of personal information

3. (1) A data subject who wishes to request a responsible party in terms of section 24(1) of the Act to—

- (a) correct or delete the personal information about him or her which is in the possession or under the control of the responsible party as contemplated in section 24(1)(a) of the Act; or
- (b) destroy or delete a record of personal information which the responsible party is no longer authorised to retain as contemplated in section 24(1)(b) of the Act, must make the request in writing on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 2 to the Annexure and submit the request to the responsible party.

(2) The responsible party, or a person designated for that purpose by the responsible party, must assist, to the best of his or her ability, any person who requires assistance with the completion of Form 2 to the Annexure.

Duties and responsibilities of information officers

4. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 55 of the Act, an information officer must ensure that—

- (a) a compliance framework is developed, implemented and monitored;
- (b) adequate measures and standards exist in order to comply with the conditions for the lawful processing of personal information;
- (c) preliminary assessments are conducted;
- (d) a manual for the purpose of the Promotion of Access to Information Act and the Act is developed detailing—
 - (i) the purpose of the processing;
 - (ii) a description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
 - (iii) the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied;
 - (iv) the planned trans-border or cross border flows of personal information; and
 - (v) a general description allowing preliminary assessment of the suitability of information security measures to be implemented and monitored by the responsible party;
- (e) the manual referred to in paragraph (d) is available—
 - (i) on the website, of the responsible party; and
 - (ii) at the office or offices of the responsible party for public inspection during normal business hours of that responsible party;
- (f) internal measures are developed together with adequate systems to process requests for information or access thereto; and
- (g) awareness sessions are conducted regarding the provisions of the Act, regulations made in terms of the Act, codes of conduct, or information obtained from the Regulator.

(2) The information officer, or a person designated by him or her, can upon request of any person provide copies of the manual, to that person upon payment of a fee determined by the responsible party which may not be more than R3.50 per page.

Application to issue a code of conduct

5. A private or public body which is, in the opinion of the Regulator, sufficiently representative of any class of bodies, or of any industry, profession, or vocation may apply to the Regulator for the issue of a code of conduct, on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 3 to the Annexure and must be submitted to the Regulator.

Request for data subject's consent for processing of personal information for the purpose of direct marketing by means of unsolicited electronic communications

6. A responsible party may request a data subject's consent in writing on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 4 to the Annexure for the processing of personal information of that data subject for the purpose of direct marketing as contemplated in section 69(2) of the Act.

Submission of complaint or grievance

7. (1) A complaint contemplated in section 74(1) of the Act must be submitted to the Regulator in writing on a form which corresponds substantially with Part I of Form 5 to the Annexure.

(2) A complaint contemplated in section 74(2) of the Act must be submitted to the Regulator in writing on a form which corresponds substantially with Part II of Form 5 to the Annexure.

(3) The Regulator must assist, to the best of its ability, any person who requires assistance with the completion of Part I or Part II of Form 5 to the Annexure.

Regulator acting as conciliator during an investigation

8. (1) The Regulator may decide to act as conciliator at any time during the investigation in relation to any interference with the protection of the personal information of a data subject, as contemplated in section 76(1)(b) of the Act, and may wish to endeavour to obtain a settlement as contemplated in section 80 of the Act.

(2) The Regulator must obtain all the relevant documentation relating to the matter from the data subject and the responsible party.

(3) The Regulator may join two or more complaints, which are alleged to relate to the same interference with the protection of personal information by the same responsible party in order to deal with the complaints in the same conciliation.

(4) On receipt of the documentation contemplated in sub regulation (2) the Regulator must, as soon as it practically possible, in writing inform the data subject and the responsible party implicated in the complaint on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 6 to the Annexure of the Regulator's decision to act as conciliator in the matter by—

(a) setting the time and place of the conciliation meeting; and

(b) taking steps to ensure that all persons entitled to attend the conciliation meeting are notified within a reasonable time, of the date, time and place of the meeting.

(5) Where a conciliation meeting fails to take place, the Regulator must arrange for an alternative date and notify the persons entitled to attend the conciliation meeting accordingly.

(6) (a) The Regulator must confer with the parties and endeavour to obtain an agreement or settlement in respect of the matter.

(b) The Regulator may confer with the parties in person, by remote or local electronic communication means, or by any other means as is deemed appropriate.

(7) The Regulator must issue a conciliation certificate in writing on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 7 to the Annexure within 10 working days after the conclusion of the meeting.

(8) The conciliation certificate must be published on the website of the Regulator.

(9) If no agreement or settlement is reached or the parties did not wish to attend a conciliation meeting, the Regulator must proceed with the matter as provided for in terms of section 76 of the Act.

Pre-investigation proceedings of Regulator

9. (1) The Regulator must inform the complainant, the data subject to whom the investigation relates (if not the complainant) and any person alleged to be aggrieved (if not the complainant), in writing on a form which corresponds substantially with Part A of Form 8 to the Annexure of the Regulator's intention to conduct an investigation, and submit the form to the complainant, the data subject to whom the investigation relates (if not the complainant) and any person alleged to be aggrieved (if not the complainant).

(2) The Regulator must inform the responsible party to whom the investigation relates in writing on a form which corresponds substantially with Part B of Form 8 to the Annexure of the complaint or the subject matter of the investigation and must request a written response to the complaint or the subject matter of the investigation, if the responsible party so wishes, and submit the form to the responsible party.

Notifications

10. (1) A data subject and a responsible party will be kept informed of developments during an investigation and will be informed of the result of an investigation at their designated addresses within 10 days of a decision being made or an action being taken as may be applicable.

(2) Notices will be served in writing to notify the data subject, the complainant and the responsible party that—

- (a) an enforcement notice will not be issued in terms of section 94(a) of the Act on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 9;
- (b) the complaint has been referred to the Enforcement Committee in terms of section 92 of the Act on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 10;
- (c) an enforcement notice has been served in terms of section 95 of the Act on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 11;
- (d) an enforcement notice had been cancelled in terms of section 96 of the Act on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 12;
- (e) an appeal has been lodged against an enforcement notice for cancellation or variation of the notice in terms of section 96 of the Act on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 13;
- (f) an appeal against an enforcement notice has been allowed and that an enforcement notice has been substituted in terms of section 98 of the Act on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 14; or

(g) an appeal has been dismissed in terms of section 98 of the Act on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 15, to the Annexure.

Assessments

11. (1) A request for an assessment must be submitted to the Regulator in writing on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 16 to the Annexure.

(2) The Regulator must inform the responsible party, on a form that corresponds substantially with Part II of Form 16 to the Annexure, if it has decided to conduct an assessment on—

(a) its own initiative; or

(b) request by any person as contemplated in sub-regulation (1), within 10 working days of that decision being taken.

(3) The Regulator must notify the person who requested an assessment, whether it has made an assessment or not and of any view formed or action taken if an assessment was conducted, on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 17 to the Annexure, within 10 working days of a decision being made or an assessment being conducted as the case may be.

2. "Processing" means any operation or activity or any set of operations, whether or not by automatic means, concerning personal information, including—

- (a) the collection, receipt, recording, organisation, collation, storage, updating or modification, retrieval, alteration, consultation or use;
- (b) dissemination by means of transmission, distribution or making available in any other form; or
- (c) merging, linking, as well as restriction, degradation, erasure or destruction of information.

3. "Personal information" means information relating to an identifiable, living, natural person, and where it is applicable, an identifiable, existing juristic person, including, but not limited to—

- (a) information relating to the race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, national, ethnic or social origin, colour, sexual orientation, age, physical or mental health, well-being, disability, religion, conscience, belief, culture, language and birth of the person;
- (b) information relating to the education or the medical, financial, criminal or employment history of the person;
- (c) any identifying number, symbol, e-mail address, physical address, telephone number, location information, online identifier or other particular assignment to the person;
- (d) the biometric information of the person;
- (e) the personal opinions, views or preferences of the person;
- (f) correspondence sent by the person that is implicitly or explicitly of a private or confidential nature or further correspondence that would reveal the contents of the original correspondence;
- (g) the views or opinions of another individual about the person; and
- (h) the name of the person if it appears with other personal information relating to the person or if the disclosure of the name itself would reveal information about the person.
